neither the sand of the sea measured:
so will I multiply the seed of David my servant,

FAST For Such a Time . . .

Dear Church Leader,

Hold As ministry becomes more challenging, it is increasingly evident our members must be trained for ministry. “The harvest truly is plenteous,” Jesus said, “but the labourers are few” (Matthew 9:37). FAST is excited to help meet this need by providing resources you can use to transform your church into a true training center for Christian workers. By partnering with FAST we can help you to accomplish three vitally important goals:

- FAST
- Follow-Up. In many conferences, it is estimated that one-half of all new baptisms leave the church within one year. The percentage for public evangelism is even higher! Or to put it differently, simply keep those you baptize in the church, and you double the real growth of your church...
 - Discipleship. More and more churches are recognizing the need for an intentional and systematic discipling program to deepen the Christian experience of members. Many attend for years, and yet fail to grow in spirituality and commitment. Practical nuts and bolts discipleship training can change that, and bring revival to their lives...
 - Evangelism. Reaching out to its community is the life blood of any church. Providing resources to mobilize members for ministry, in areas like small groups, personal Bible studies, visitation, and creative front-line ministry is one of our strategic priorities at FAST. Properly trained leaders will help attract people to your church—consistently...
